Verse 1

D G
Julie was a lonely girl

D
Said she was born the way
G
She always felt that way

D G
She left home at age sixteen
D
Got a job-watcha 'sposed to do
G
That's what you gotta do

D G
She fill in love and settled down
D
In a council place
G
out on the edge of town

Pre-Chorus

D A G
She'd feel alone in a crowded room

D A G
Cry when she heard a happy tune

Verse 2

D G
Well it would be nice to holiday
D
But they took her job away
G
They took her life away

D G
And doing nothing isn't fun
D
When you've nothing from which to run
G
Yeah, you've nowhere left to run

D G
 She'd visit the social every day
 D
 Every time be turned away
 G
 Every time be turned away

Pre-Chorus D A G
 She'd feel alone in a crowded room
 D A G
 Cry when she heard a happy tune

Bridge D A D G D A G

Verse 3 D G
 A hundred stairs to her new room
 D
 Over glass and blackened spoons
 G
 Children grow old so soon

D G
 Past the kids who gather there
 D
 Pain masked by narcotic stares
 G
 But no-one really cares

Pre-Chorus D A G
 Her dreams were cut up and bled dry
 D A G
 A million voices in her cry

Coda A D G A
 Julie waits, her world is her window
 A D G A
 And Julie hates just what she doesn't know
 A D G A
 And Julie hates, she hates the world below
 A D G D
 But Julie loves she loves to much to know
