Verse 1 Em D G D/F# E5
What a wonderful hesitation
 Em D C Em
who would bear to feel sorry for me Em D G D/F# E5
dropped another pill just to calm me
 Em D Cmaj7 C Cmaj7
collapsed to my knees and fell fast into sleep

Chorus 1 C
There I was drifting
 G Am C G
way out into the sunshine
 G Am7 C G
expecting to crash but I'm tied to a string
 G Am7 C G
Look at me I'm a tangled puppet
 G Am C G D/F# E
I might be a mess but I sure can survive

Verse 2 Em D G D/F# E5
find myself awake counting sad days
 Em D C Em
1-2-3 that's too many for me
 Em D G D/F# E5
dropped another pill just to find me Em D reached for my hand Cmaj7 C Cmaj7
but it was already there

Chorus 2 C
then I started believin' G Am C G
that I fell out of a tiny raindrop
 G Am7 C G
that lost it's way when it decided to roam
 G Am7 C G
chasing me was a hungry dweller
 G Am C G
but I had escaped it by pretending to die

Verse 3

Em D G D/F# E5
 What a wonderful destination
 Em D C Em
 where I'm now I can no longer see Em D G D/F# E5
 dropped another pill just to kill me
 Em D Cmaj7 C Cmaj7
 collapsed to my knees and fell fast into sleep

Chorus 3

C
 there I was drifting

G Am C G
 way out into the sunshine
 G Am C G
 expecting to crash but I'm tied to a string
 G Am C G
 Look at me I'm a tangled puppet
 G Am C G
 I might be a mess but I sure can survive
 G Am C G
 But I had escaped it by pretending to die.
